The MAGIC of Entrepreneurship . . .

Dreams Do Come True !

Orlando, Florida.
November 5 - 8, 2005

ENJOY THE FIREWORKS OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION IDEAS

Focus is on creativity and diversity of exciting entrepreneurs in the area

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBMIT YOUR CONFERENCE PROPOSAL DEADLINE IS MARCH 15, 2005

CALL FOR PROGRAMS:

Tell us what you are doing to encourage the entrepreneurial spirit in America. The Conference will focus on potential entrepreneurs of all ages and the role that entrepreneurship education and training plays in preparing them to create and operate successful business enterprises. Come to share your innovative entrepreneurship programs, ideas, techniques, and products with colleagues nationwide. If you are an outstanding education or service provider (and we know you are), and provide an entrepreneurship program in K-12, junior/community college, four-year college or university, adult education, or community-based organizations we encourage you to submit a proposal.

CONCURRENT SESSION THEMES:

- BUILD THE BASICS… Programs that infuse entrepreneurial experiences and concepts and encourage career exploration.
- THINK LIKE AN ENTREPRENEUR… Programs that build business competency levels for future entrepreneurs and employees, and provide contextual learning for academic skills.
- CREATE APPLICATIONS… Teaching young people to plan their own business in creative ways
- START YOUR BUSINESS… Programs that help youth and adults create a real business
- GROW YOUR BUSINESS… Unique approaches to help existing entrepreneurs survive and prosper
- GET OUTSIDE THE BOX … Programs that employ unique approaches to encourage entrepreneurship (technology-based, international markets, career specialties etc.)
- DEVELOP THE PROFESSION … Programs that help teachers and program designers

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR PROPOSAL (NOTE SHORT TIMELINE…PROPOSALS DUE MARCH 15, 2005)

Forum sessions will include entrepreneurship symposia, panel discussions, and individual presentations organized as 50-minute sessions. Submit your proposal in either Word Perfect or Word format and e-mail it directly to the Consortium for Entrepreneurship Education at cashmore@entre-ed.org
